PRESS RELEASE

2/12/18

LINDSAY PEEPING TOM CONVICTED FOR LEWD ACTS

On Friday, February 9, 2018, in Department 19 of the Tulare County Superior Court, South County Justice Center, Judge Antonio Reyes presiding, a jury convicted Jose Magana Ibarra, age 32, of Lindsay, of one count of indecent exposure and one count of lewd acts in public. Both counts are misdemeanors.

At 6:30 in the morning on September 20, 2016, Ibarra jumped over the victim's fence and began engaging in lewd acts with himself while looking in the windows of the victim's home. This continued for several minutes. Unbeknownst to Ibarra, the victim's home was equipped with video surveillance which recorded the entire incident.

Sentencing is scheduled for March 2, 2018, in Superior Court.

The case was prosecuted by Deputy District Attorney Aaron Corey of the Porterville Division and investigated by the Lindsay Police Department.
