PRESS RELEASE

6/11/18

CONVICTED CHILD MOLESTER SENTENCED TO LIFE IN PRISON

Today in Department 6 of the Tulare County Superior Court, Visalia Division, Judge Gary Paden sentenced Joseph Baltezor, age 42, of Visalia, to 59 years and 8 months-to-life in prison for child molestation. On April 13, 2018, Baltezor was convicted of 20 counts of lewd act on a child under the age of fourteen, one count of lewd act on a child aged fourteen, and one count of sexual penetration of a child ten or under. On six of the counts, Baltezor was found to have substantial sexual conduct with a victim under the age of fourteen.

The crimes occurred between 2008 and 2013 against a single minor female victim who was between nine and fourteen years of age at the time of the sexual assaults.

In addition to his sentence, he will have to register as a sex offender.

The case was prosecuted by Deputy District Attorney Laura Jackson of the Crimes against Children Division and investigated by Sgt. Mike Verissimo of the Visalia Police Department.
